Gower and Walters(2005) suggest some strategies on how teachers can make their instructions effective:

- First attract the students' attention
- Use simple language and short expressions
- Be consistent
- Use visual clues or write them
- Demonstrate
- Break the instructions down
- Target your instructions
- Be decisive

Point to Consider

"Harmer (2007, p.37): How to talk to students becomes crucial when teachers give instruction to them. The best activity in the world is a waste time if the students do not understand what it is they are supposed to do."
